

The Student Voice Rules:

- 1. Inappropriate messages will not be tolerated. (Cursing, inappropriate images, etc)
- 2. Be kind and respectful to one another (including editors and teachers). Any rude or disrespectful behavior is not tolerable.
- 3. Work must be done by the deadline, if work is not finished 48 hours after the draft deadline, article will be canceled. Final article must be done 48 hours after final deadline, if not, article will be finished by editor(s).
- 4. Any decisions made by Editors or Teachers can respectfully be discussed among Team Members and Editors or Teachers. Team members may present their opinion on the decision but the Editors and Teachers decision is final.
- 5. Articles written must be your own work. Plagiarism or any other copy and pasting is not acceptable. Requesting help is tolerated and a good idea, but your own work is required. Sources must be cited the APA way.
- 6. Editors must understand that teachers have authority over them and the team.
- 7. Only team members are allowed to be in the Student Voice group chats.

- 8. Editors and teachers can add rules as needed.
- 9. Only BWA Students are allowed to publish artwork, articles, etc on the site.
- If a team member violates a rule twice the students removal and denotation to the Canvas course will be discussed between editors and teachers. If a team member violates any number of rules more than 3 times the removal of the student will not be discussed, and will under any circumstances take place. If a student is removed from the team the student will be allowed to stay in the Canvas course but will no longer have any chance of ever joining the team again.
